Thanks. In my preparations, I was made to understand that certain things are supposed to be served on opposing counsel prior to filing them with the court. If I find myself needing to do this, it would be helpful to know which email addresses I should send such communications to.

You need to make sure that all parties receive notice of anything you file. Those of us that are registered with the Court filing system (Plaintiffs as well as any represented Defendants) will get automatic notification once you file, so you do not need to send to us separately. I believe the pro se Defendants (Heimbach, Hopper and Kline) will not receive automatic notification, so you should email them copies when you file.

I'm about to ship a physical copy of my response to the 2nd amended complaint to the court.

Who else besides you should I email copies to?
